Article VII: Elections

Section 1. The election of the Board of Directors and Officers shall take place by balloting submitted to the Association in each even year by a majority of members that vote.

Section 2. Nominations shall be required for candidacy on the Board of Directors. The Nominations Committee shall submit a slate of potential Board members and Officers to the Board. Any member of the Association in good standing may nominate or be nominated to serve on the Board. The Board shall specify the closing date for nominations.

Section 3. A proposed ballot containing the names of those nominated and the Offices for which they were nominated shall be mailed or transmitted by electronic means to all members in good standing. Election results will be officially announced in the next edition of the Newsletter published by the Board. Members may vote either by mailing a ballot or by voting through the same electronic means by which the ballot was received, within 30 days after receipt of the ballot.

Section 4. In the event two candidates receive an equal number of votes, a runoff election shall be held in a manner specified by the Board.

Section 5. All members of the Board shall be elected to serve for one term, which shall commence upon election by the Association, and which shall terminate after the two-year election cycle, or when the Board member is not reelected. Board members may serve for multiple terms.

Section 6. In the event that any Board member or Officer is unable to serve, the Board by a majority vote shall appoint a member in good standing of the Association to serve during the interim or for the remaining time of a term.

Article VIII: Committees

Section 1. The standing committees of the Association and their missions shall be:

- Land Use. To develop and promote strategic long term community development and transportation plans for East Sacramento and surrounding areas; to track individual development proposals before the Planning Commission and the City Council; and to coordinate with the Board in developing and promoting the Association's positions on such proposals.
- Nomination. To recruit new Board members and review nominations in order to recommend a slate of Board members to the Association.

Section 2. In addition to the standing committees established in Section 1, the Board may from time to time create committees to serve the purposes of the Association. The President may appoint persons not members of the Board to serve on committees.

Article IX: Meetings

Section 1. The Association shall hold general membership meetings at such time and place as determined by the Board. Notice of all general meetings shall be published in the Newsletter distributed by the Board to the general membership and/or mailed or transmitted by electronic means to all members of the Association.

Section 2. The Board shall meet at least once every other month, or at such other times as the President may determine. Board members shall attend and participate in monthly board meetings. The Board may replace Board members following more than one unexcused absence or a total of four absences in one year. The President may request the Board make exceptions.

Section 3. Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the proceedings of Board meetings.

Article X: Policy Decisions

Section 1. It is the intent of this Association that the Board shall be responsible for carrying out the day-to-day actions of leadership and administration of the Association, and take positions on issues of legitimate concern to East Sacramento. The Board shall strive to inform and solicit input from the Association on proposed policy positions. Policy positions shall be represented as the position of the Board unless reviewed and approved by the membership.

Section 2. No member of the Association shall claim to speak on behalf of the Association without prior written approval of the majority of the Board. The Association shall not use the name of any individual member in stating a position on policy of the Association without written consent of that individual.

Section 3. Failure by any Association member to support a position or policy of the Association shall in no way affect membership in the Association.

Section 4. The Association shall not support or oppose any candidate for elected office.

Article XII: Amendments

The Bylaws of the Association may be amended by a two-thirds majority of the Board, or by a majority of members of the Association voting. If members of the Association are asked to vote, the text of any proposed amendment must be submitted to all members. Members may vote either by mailing a ballot or by electronic means within 30 days of the transmittal of the proposed amendments.
